

CROSS CURRENTS INTERNATIONAL MINISTRIES

VOL. 38 NO. 7

July, 2008

Our dear Prayer Supporter,

Nairobi – “Praise the Lord! Now I can boldly say ‘Praise the Lord’ because I have now understood who the Lord is and I have decided to give my life to Jesus after listening to your program. My niece had always told me about Jesus but it did not make any sense in my life. But, after your teachings, I gave my life to Him and I would like you to send me Christian material which will help me grow in spiritual matters. God bless you.”

This letter came to us as one of the many responses to “Dorothy’s Daily Devotional” in Kenya. Letters such as this testify how the late nights and early mornings of preparation and intercession are so gloriously worthwhile. Thank you for your vital prayer involvement in this ministry!

Just recently, Dorothy and I reflected as to what would be left if the veil of the world’s machinery were lifted from the ministry. If our dependence is upon the method or money then the whole outreach of CCIM would be a mere fleshly function devoid of any spiritual impact.

At the Judgment Seat of Christ, only that which the Holy Spirit has been able to do through our lives will remain to glorify God for ever and ever. So, to God be all the glory!

There is only one Soul Winner! His name is Jesus: For the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost LUKE 19:19, 20. And, when in His risen power the Lord Jesus invades our humanity, then His own ministry of soul winning will continue through us all!

That is why total availability to Him, and total dependence upon Him, are absolutely vital in the machinations of modern-day technology. In the less sophisticated day from that in which we live, the Apostle Paul testified: “For this I also labor, striving according to His working, which worketh in me mightily” COLOSSIANS 1:29. For Paul, his was not a life of inactivity. Certainly not! However, the source of his “labor” and “striving” was not the energy of his flesh but the dynamic effectiveness of the indwelling Christ.

How thankful we are for your prayers on our behalf. But what of those precious people whose testimonies we share with you from month to month? The vast majority of such have few or no faithful prayer warriors such as do Dorothy and I. The following letter from a “Displacement Camp” in Kenya is surely an example of those for whom we should continue to pray:

Kabsabet – “I would like to thank you for keeping us company in the camp where displaced Kenyan’s are staying due to political violence. Your ‘Dorothy’s Daily Devotional’ program has remained a friend to us every day through Kenya Broadcasting Corporation. We would like to let you know that the work you are doing is not in vain. It is giving hope to people like us who are displaced and are looking to God to give them direction in their lives.”

Bibles Needed in Kenya

(From Beverly of TWR, Kenya)

“People in America are totally unaware how precious a Bible is for a Kenyan. The advantage is that many in our country can read English, and we can therefore give English Bibles to our radio listeners. Let us pray that more people will get involved to help in collecting English Bibles for Kenyans. I am especially thinking of the great need of thousands of dear Christians who need Bibles in the Displacement Camps.

“For example, this morning I received a call from one of our listeners that her Bible was stolen yesterday (on Sunday) during prayer time. She placed it down on the seat beside her, and as she was praying with her eyes closed, somebody stole it. This sister called to find out if we had any Bibles. Thank God that we had just been informed that friends through CCIM were sending a small consignment of new Bibles to us at TWR Kenya. I told her we shall give her a copy when the shipment arrived. Although Kenyans love to read the Word of God, the majority are sadly not able to buy their own copy. It is our prayer that the Lord will continue to touch more hearts in the USA to give English Bibles towards this noble task we are involved with at TWR Kenya.

“Again we thank God for ministries of radio and literature. We continue to receive letters, cell messages, as well as visitors to TWR offices, in spite of the severe inflation that Kenyans are experiencing. Currently it is difficult for many to even pay for postage.”

Over the years CCIM has been blessed of God to ship hundreds of thousands of new Bibles and New Testaments to Kenya. However, with the many international projects, this is no longer possible. Small contingencies of “used” Bibles are still being sent to TWR from Bellingham, Washington. Our constant prayer is that individuals and churches across America would also become involved in collecting and sending “used” Bibles directly to TWR Kenya. (Please contact us for further information.)

Please join us in prayer as we share some of the listeners letters from Kenya:

Nairobi – I humbly express my sincere thanks for your esteemed program. The example you gave of how Joseph was rejected by his brothers, and the way Jesus Christ was rejected by those who He had come to save, was very touching. The question was, “Are you hating the One who loves you?” The question has given me a rival so that I have to decide what will I do with God. (A copy of Your Quest for God was sent.) [Ed: The broadcast was heard in February but the listener has only recently had the money to pay for the postage to send his letter to the studio.]

Shianda – Greetings in the name of our Savior Jesus Christ. I want to express my appreciation for your devotional program on Kenya Broadcasting Corporation which I listen to every day. May God continue to anoint you as you share the blessings of His Word with us. Please send the book you mentioned on your program. God bless you.

Rongo – Grace and peace be to you from God our Father and our Lord Jesus Christ. I am glad to write to you. I have to tell you that the glory of the Lord is upon you because your ministry has been whizzing and zooming its Gospel contents through stations and regions beyond!

Kitale – Praise the Lord! I am deeply touched with your program on the radio and I feel more encouraged because of how you deliver powerful and timely messages. Recently I was so much blessed with your program as the topic was meant for me because you taught on issues that I am struggling with in life. God bless you.

Limuru – May I express my joy upon receiving the book you sent me, Food for Faith. Although I received it during Christmas season, I considered it a gift. I shared my copy with a friend who is a widow. She has kept congratulating me for such a great book! I am also most grateful for benefiting from the spiritual contents of this book. May God bless you as you take care of our spiritual needs.

Khwisero – According to your program, “Dorothy’s Daily Devotional,” I am highly inspired to begin reading the Bible using the Biblical guidelines from Your Quest for God. I believe this book will help me in knowing who God is in a deeper way.

Kitale – I want to acknowledge the good that you do through your daily devotional on Kenya Broadcasting Corporation, General Service. To me, the devotion has been revolutionary and life transforming. It is my belief that it is tearing down Satan’s manifestations in the lives of many others. May God reward you and empower you with more to tell to His children and hopefully a longer time of the broadcast.

Nairobi – Congratulations for the beautiful work that you are doing for God in saving souls. Your books can lead one to the Lord without listening to the Gospel because the Gospel is within them. May God continue to shower His blessings upon you as you preach and teach the Word of God.

Olenguruone – I thank God very much for the good work you are doing. In fact your radio station has become a blessing for me. Please continue with the same Spirit and God will surely bless you. I also wish to thank you for sending me the book entitled Food for Faith. Indeed this book has lifted my faith and I thank God and Richard Bennett for these thoughts. May God bless him.

Meru – I write this letter to thank you for the gift you sent to me. This book has enriched and nourished my Christian life. May God richly bless you. I am also thanking you for answering questions.

Yala – I am much pleased to say “thanks” to you. I call upon the Name of the Lord God to be of great blessing to sister Dorothy and her entire ministry. May God Almighty be your shield and provider.

Nairobi – Praise the Lord! I thank God for “Dorothy’s Daily Devotional” program. Although it is short, it is very powerful. Dorothy has read and understood the Word of God so clearly that when she breaks it to us into small pieces it makes a lot of meaning and blessing. Indeed, I have been listening to this program for the last year and my life is not the same. I have begun to look at God’s goodness from a different way and, to crown it all, the book Your Quest for God explains it all. God bless you.

Eldoret – I appreciate the fact of what you are doing to see that I am growing up firmly in the truth of the word of God. Thank you for that great support and good inspiring radio program. I received the books you sent to me that really encouraged my Christian life to be firm in the foundation of the Lord Jesus Christ. God bless you for the wonderful book Your Quest For God. The book has helped my family members and Christian friends to know more about God. Please continue to pray for our lives to be firm in our Lord Jesus Christ.

Nairobi – I thank you for your beautiful radio program “Dorothy’s Daily Devotion.” This program has made me proud because I have grown spiritually. Thank you so much for the books—they have given me direction in my salvation. May God bless you as you feed us spiritually.

Nairobi – Thank you for the free book that you sent me. I am very much enriched spiritually through reading this book. Kindly send me the other book, Your Quest For God. God bless you and equip you.

Thank you again for your prayers as we seek to “. . . labor, striving according to His working, which worketh in me [us] mightily.”
