Blessed Christmas!

Our Dear Prayer Partner,

"JESUS. What a Name!" As at this Christmas season we worship our beloved Lord Jesus Christ, please take time to dwell on some of His titles written on our enclosed Christmas card.

Richard and I well remember Christmas in our first home in England. There, a persistent insurance agent made a couple of unsuccessful visits trying to sell us insurance. After which, we decided that if he returned again, we would share with him the "Why" of Christmas!

Shortly afterwards, Bob made his third visit and we had the joy of leading him to know JESUS –the Son of God – as his personal Savior. In consequent conversation, Bob explained how, when visiting another home, he had been intrigued to see so many "religious notices" around the walls. These "notices" were Scriptural verses which had brought Bob a conviction of sin in preparation for his conversion in our home!

You might want to consider framing our Christmas card as a silent "religious notice" in your home. It was "birthed" by a faithful volunteer helper, Bev, who spends long hours helping Dorothy over Skype as they engage in international ministries from their computers.

At this time of year, as many use the opportunity to share family news, we thought we would like to do the same! However, our "family" is made up of precious peoples of various colors, nationalities and age brackets. What is so exciting is that "our" family are also "your" family as you are part of reaching them through CCIM by prayers and financial support.

You mean so much to us in our advancing years. Together we want to finish well before our glorious Home call. Praise God His work will continue even then as you, a family member, prayerfully continue to support the outreach of CCIM though missionary broadcasts; missionaries in paper covers; and Internet in multiple languages. Although, in our monthly letters we can only mention a few people who have responded to the messages etc., your prayerful and financial commitment to this ministry unites us as God's family, and in this way, we can make this Christmas vitally count for Him. Thank you so much for all you mean to us in JESUS!

In His love,

"But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ" 1 Cor. 15:57.
